

Documentation

As part of the cell harvesting, all relevant data are recorded to the software's database. Stored data can be exported into a separate folder for later analysis.

Sample image for a documentation of a harvesting process of mES colony of feeder cells left Cell image before harvest / right Cell image after harvest

Sample image of the picklist
Origin and destination of the transferred cells