

Laminar Flow Cabinet for Sterile Working Conditions

The FlowBox for the ALS CellCelector creates sterile surrounding conditions for a safe and longer working with sensitive cell cultures and primary cells.

The sterile surrounding within the FlowBox keeps the cell cultures free of germs and bacteria.

Physiological environmental conditions are achieved by temperature, CO<sub>2</sub> and humidity control.

Simultaneously, the laminar flow cabinet serves as safety housing for the CellCelector during operation.